

Press Release

For Immediate Release

Contact:

PR/Media

WOCAF (Women of Color Arts & Film) Festival, Atlanta

wocaf@iyalodeproductions.com

Facebook

Twitter

WOCAF (Women of Color Arts & Film) Festival, Atlanta: Film & Art Exhibition Submission Deadline Friday, January 29th 2010

ATLANTA, GA (Jan 6th 2010) – The 6th annual WOCAF (Women of Color Arts & Film) Festival, the only festival of its kind in the Southeast that focuses on the achievements of women of color in the arts and media from across the globe, will be closing its first call for submissions for films and art work on January 29th 2010. The WOCAF Festival is currently accepting applications for film and videos as well as art work made by and/or about Women of Color. For a festival submission guidelines, including application and fee information, please visit www.wocaf.org to download application forms.

The four day festival scheduled for March 25th -28th 2010 will feature screenings of over 20 films, a music showcase and an art exhibition, all by and/or about women of color. “The immense growth of the festival confirms a need for a platform that celebrates Women of Color’s creativity” states Festival Director Mojisola Sonoiki. This year’s festival promises to be just as exciting as the previous WOCAF festivals and is a must see. Please mark your calendar and stay tuned for the schedule of events for WOCAF 2010.

About WOCAF:

Now in its sixth year, the WOCAF’s schedule of films, music and art attracts a diverse audience of women and men. Each year, films from across the globe are showcased. The music portion features International artists and the visual arts exhibition promotes local Atlanta Women of Color artists. Founded in 2005 by Mojisola Sonoiki, The WOCAF Festival is dedicated to promoting cultural, political and social issues about and/or related to women of color. WOCAF’s goal is to utilize the arts as a powerful vehicle to inform, enrich and entertain.